Orders will primarily come through Dispatch, although other Government personnel are authorized to place orders.

The State will generally consult the statewide resource list and choose the vendor closest to the incident, taking vendor equitability and mobilization costs into consideration. The ordering official will inform that vendor of the location, quantity required, and date and time needed. The order will be placed with that vendor until that vendor cannot fill the order or meet the date and time needed. If that vendor is unable to meet the requirements, the next closest vendor may be contacted, etc. The next time the service is required, the same process will be followed, taking in to account location and ensuring equitability among the vendors.

NOTE: The State of Montana reserves the right to select vendors who they (State Officials) consider to be in their best interest. This may include vendors who did not participate in this solicitation.

When receiving a dispatch call, the vendor shall confirm their availability and ability to meet specified timeframes. This may include but is not limited to rejecting the equipment and going to the next qualified vendor. The vendor shall not have any claims or payments due for equipment rejected for not meeting the specifications/requirements contained herein.

HARASSMENT FREE WORKPLACE POLICY

  State of Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation Sexual Harassment
Document Type: Policy	Issuing Authority: DNRC	First Issued: 9/5/95
Number: P-DNRC-HR-4	References: MOM 3-0620	Effective Date: 9/5/95
Approval Signature: /s/ Bud Clinch, Director		Last Revised: 9/5/95

It is the policy of the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation to prohibit sexual harassment of its employees and applicants for employment in the work place by any person and in any form. Each supervisor has an affirmative duty to maintain the work place free from sexual harassment. This duty includes discussing this policy with all employees and assuring them that they are not required to endure or be subject to insulting, degrading or offensive sexual treatment.

Specifically, sexual harassment refers to behavior which is not welcome, personally offensive, weakens morale and therefore interferes with employees' effectiveness and work environment, and is generally defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for favors and other verbal, physical and/or visual contact of a sexual nature when:

- Submission is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment.
- Submission or rejection by an employee is used as a basis for employment decisions affecting the employee.
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an employee's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or otherwise offensive work environment.

The following are examples of sexual harassment:

- Sexual advances which are unwanted (this may include situations which began as reciprocal attractions but later ceased to be reciprocal).
- Leering or sexual gestures.
- Displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons or posters.
- Verbal abuse of a sexual nature, sexually-oriented jokes, innuendoes or obscenities.

Sexually suggestive letters, notes or invitations.

- Reprisals or threats after a negative response to sexual advances.
- Employment benefits affected in exchange for sexual favors (may include situations where a third party is treated less favorably because others have agreed to sexual advances).
- Physical conduct such as assault, attempted rape, impeding or blocking movement or touching.
- Women in nontraditional work environments may also be subject to hazing (this may include being dared or asked to perform unsafe work practices).

No supervisor shall threaten or insinuate either explicit or implied action(s) that an employee's refusal to submit to sexual advances will adversely affect the employee's employment, evaluation, classification (grade), assigned duties, or any other condition of employment or career development.

It should be understood that sexual harassment is against the law and the State of Montana is committed to the prevention of all forms of sexual harassment in the work place. If you are not personally a victim of sexual harassment, but observe actions against other employees which you believe to be harassment, you should bring it to the attention of your supervisor or to the first level supervisor not involved in the alleged harassment or the DNRC EEO Officer. If you feel you are being sexually harassed, you may wish to pursue the following:

- Inform the individual that his/her behavior is unwelcome, offensive or inappropriate. Do not assume or hope that the problem will go away.
 - If you are unable to confront the harasser, or the harassment continues, do not keep it to yourself.
 - If you are considering reporting a complaint, you can:
 1. Report a complaint utilizing the reporting procedures contained in the DNRC Sexual Harassment Policy/Affirmative Action Plan.
 2. File a grievance under the grievance policy or through a grievance procedure available through collective bargaining agreements or statute.
 3. File a complaint with the Human Rights Commission. Complaints with the Human Rights Commission will be accepted within 180 days of the action or an extended 120 days if you are using an internal complaint procedure.
- It is the policy of the Department of Natural Resources and Conservation to take direct and immediate action when informed of alleged violations and enforce the full range of liability and protection created by Title VII and the Montana Human Rights Act.
- Sexual Harassment Training is required for all DNRC employees. This training should take place for new employees as soon as available and prior to the completion of the six month probationary period. The immediate supervisor will notify the new employee of this requirement during the new employee orientation. Current DNRC employees are required to attend a refresher training for Sexual Harassment at least once every two years.
